

Innovative people — innovative business solutions

How It Works?

It is simple.

YesBusiness is a team of highly skilled Project Managers which have significant experience in launching start ups in Ukraine. Success of our clients—is our success.

We carefully learn your business needs and goals. We appoint the Project Manager that best of all matches to the successful realization of the project and have a solid experience in a relevant area.

All team of YesBusiness—accountants, lawyers, marketers and other experts in different fields will assist Project Manager in development of the projects. In other words—you have fully operated office in Ukraine.

We direct all our forces to increase profitability of Your company and simultaneously you have operational, investment, market risks reduced.

Which risks are reduced?

Operational risk

Fraud risks, legal risks, physical or environmental risks are reduced by employing a team of well known company that is supported by our excellence consulting track records.

Investment risk

You will have less up-front investments because you don't need to pay dozens thousands of dollars for executive search, office search, equipment and salary of several employees. Also prompt start with us will allow you to achieve pay-back period faster.

Market risk

We adapt your business model to the particularities of Ukrainian market. Cross-cultural barriers are also removed.

How performances are increased?

Individual approach

We recognize that you and your project is unique. Our people bring their best thinking to our clients.

Innovation and sustain improvement

We work with our clients as we do with our colleagues. A big team of professionals in every area will help you to build a strong business in Ukraine with sustain growth.

Focus

We earn our clients' trust. We treat each customer separately through our consistently superior service. We do not offer general services designed for masses as many consulting companies do.

Flexibility

At any time of our cooperation you may easily go on managing your business separately or quit the market with no losses or risks.
